

Profile of Dr. Mohan B. Vanarotti

Dr. Mohan B. Vanarotti earned his Doctoral Degree from VTU Belagavi in 2014, and completed his Masters in 2004. He graduated from Guru Nanak Dev Engineering College, Bidar. He has about 20+ years of experience in industry, academics, Research and administration. Currently he is working as a Principal at Sanjeevan Engineering and Technology Institute, Kolhapur since March, 2018. He has also served as Professor, Head (R&D) at several reputed institutions.

Dr. Mohan B. Vanarotti has executed three funded research projects (approximate INR 3.0 Million) funded by BRFST (Department of Atomic Energy), Indian Institute of Science Bangalore, and Christ University, Bangalore in the field of Composite materials. He conducted several research activities at national and international level. Also, organized several workshops and FDP programs with the funding from Govt. of Karnataka and Christ University, Bangalore. He has delivered several invited talks and expert lectures at various institutions for NAAC accreditations and conferences. He has published more than 20 Technical papers in Peer reviewed/SCI indexed journals at International journals/National/International Conferences/National conferences. He has been delivered a invited talk and chaired a session at International conference for Advanced Materials and Solidification (ICAMS 2015), Shanghai Jiao Tong University, Shanghai in 2015. He guided 05 Ph.D candidates. He was an expert panel members and project evaluator for student's projects, Karnataka State Council for Science and Technology (KSCST). He visited Malaysia, Thailand, Hong Kong, Nepal and China on invitation for different research related activities.